

I live in In. and urge you not to succumb to pressure from special interest groups and maintain the status of our do not call list. I have a right to privacy in my own home!